Dear Harold,

As you may have guessed, I've really been ~~xxxx~~ swamped lately. The book (Scott, Hoch, Stetler & Thompson) is now in New York, and as far as I know the publishers are going ahead with it. I've got a little time to start catching up, but not much - so I won't even try to answer your letters. I'll just pass on these enclosures:

The clippings on Pena you requested. (Lane is his lawyer? So I hear.)
My newsletters of 9/1 and 9/8 (the latest ones)
Indexes to Volumes I (Owens), VI, VII-Firearms, IX, and XI.
Thanks again for all the stuff you've been sending.

Regards,

Paul
